

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

A dark, monochromatic photograph of two soldiers in full combat gear, including helmets with night vision goggles and tactical vests, sitting on a stone wall. The soldier on the right is holding an assault rifle. The image is dimly lit, emphasizing the textures of the stone and the soldiers' equipment.

We are committed to defending democracy and protecting the future, while remaining accountable.

LEADERSHIP TEAM

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

JONATHAN WILLIAMS

Jonathan Williams is an accomplished defense expert with over 21 years of combat experience in Active Duty, Contractor, and DoD Civilian roles. He has successfully managed and coordinated field support and logistics for the US Army, including a multi-million dollar budget.

As a Senior Advisor to the US, NATO, and allied military leaders, Jonathan provided guidance and recommendations that have directly influenced strategic military decision-making. He has also developed critical soldier training materials which have been used to supersede PM training materials. During the invasion of Ukraine, Jonathan's critical thinking and problem-solving abilities enabled him to recommend creative EUCOM theater-level plans, contributing to successful outcomes.

As a founding member of Atlas Defense International, Jonathan is committed to arming the warfighter to achieve peace and protect the innocent through humanitarian efforts.
